

COX IN ACCORD WITH WILSON ON LEAGUE OF NATIONS QUESTION

UNITY IN PARTY'S CAUSE ARRANGED IN CONFERENCE

Peace Treaty Discussed At Meeting In White House
Sunday.

STATEMENTS ISSUED

President To Lend Aid To Cox In Coming Campaign.

Columbus, O., July 19.—No discussion smacking of a joint debate with Senator Harding, Republican presidential candidate, will be entered into by Governor Cox, Democratic aspirant for White House honors, it was announced here today, following publication of the Ohio senator's demand that Governor Cox explain the significance of his conference with President Wilson at the White House yesterday, and the governor's personal attitude toward article X of the league of nations covenant and toward the proposed Armenian mandate.

Any point bearing upon these issues which in the opinion of Governor Cox has not already been made perfectly clear in his public utterances, will be amply treated in his speech of acceptance, but the Governor made it emphatically plain that he will not take up Senator Harding's challenge to answer certain questions categorically.

Washington, July 19.—After their conference at the white house, President Wilson and Governor Cox, Democratic presidential candidate, announced complete agreement on the league of nations question and unity in their party's cause.

The president and the governor, together with Franklin D. Roosevelt, vice presidential nominee, spent an hour on the south portico of the executive mansion, discussing the league and other campaign issues. All three afterwards issued formal statements, voicing solidarity of purpose. None made any reference to recently published reports that the chief executive and the presidential candidate were "far apart" on the league issue.

The president declared that he and Governor Cox "were absolutely at one with regard to the great issue of the league of nations," and that the nominee "is ready to be the champion of the honor of the nation and the secure peace of the world." The party's choice, the president added, "will have the vigorous support of an absolutely united party, and I am confident, also, of an absolutely united nation."

Governor Cox declared in his statement that he and Mr. Wilson were "agreed as to the meaning and sufficiency of the party platform and the duty of the party in the face of threatened bad faith to the world in the name of America." He declared that he would give all his strength to the promises made by President Wilson to those who sacrificed in the great war.

Mr. Roosevelt's statement spoke of the "splendid accord" of the president and Governor Cox and expressed the wish that every American could have witnessed their conference.

Wilson to Aid in Campaign.

After the conference the three party leaders had luncheon at the white house, and Governor Cox and Mr. Roosevelt later conferred with several party leaders before leaving for Columbus to meet Chairman Cummings of the Democratic national committee and attend the full committee meeting Tuesday.

Governor Cox said Mr. Wilson had promised to "help in the campaign in every way that he could," but that he had not indicated details of his plans for assistance. The governor refused to give any details of his conversation with the president, stating that he regarded such a course improper. To a query whether he had gone over his two suggested reservations to the league of nations, the candidate replied: "We discussed the subject in a general way, the president knowing from statements I had already made what my position was." He added: "There will be no mistaking my position after my speech of acceptance."

In reply to an inquiry the governor said that the prohibition enforcement law had not been mentioned during his visit with the president.

In picking its candidate for president the newly organized Farmer-Labor party went to Salt Lake City and found a lawyer, Parley P. Christensen. As Christensen's running mate the new party named Max Hayes of Cleveland, Ohio, the editor and publisher of a labor paper.

LIPTON WILL RETAIN SAME YACHT SKIPPER

Burton Willi Command
Shamrock In Tuesday's Race.

New York, July 19.—Lipton announces there will be no change in the commander of Shamrock IV.

BY FRANCIS J. WHITE

Sandy Hook, N. J., July 19.—If the international yacht race is to be continued and the opportunity of taking the coveted cup back to England be made a possibility, existing rules that govern it must be subjected to a good deal of revision. Saturday's exhibition as I saw it from a thousand feet elevation was a disappointment and while the wind was responsible the fact that a boat that received seven minutes handicap led at the finish by thirty-four shows a condition of affairs that calls for remedy. One thing certain is that Shamrock will never win a race in these waters until the blow is sufficiently strong to put her lee rail under water and keep it there while on the wind, and tomorrow's race will likely not see anything like a severe blow.

Captain Burton, skipper of the Shamrock has made mistakes during the two races sailed that looked distinctly amateurish, and the suggestion that he be replaced looks like a wise move on the part of the Britishers. It must be remembered that although Captain, the amateur skipper has the advice and assistance of a professional man.

Burton had Turner at his side all the time and the latter is a man with 20 years experience in first class yachting in England, Germany, France and Belgium. How far he has been able to influence the amateur Englishman is a question the answer of which would solve the Shamrock's trouble.

As far as can be seen this morning there is not likely to be any marked change in the weather and the big blow that would give Shamrock an opportunity to show what is in her and to make a race worth while is not at hand.

PENNSY. RAILROAD WILL LAY OFF MANY EMPLOYEES

Ten Per Cent Of The Road's Employees
Lose Jobs.

Baltimore Md., July 19.—Ten per cent of the employees in the maintenance, equipment and clerical departments of the Baltimore division of the Pennsylvania railroad will lose their jobs Wednesday.

Notice of this reduction in the working forces has been posted in all local shops and offices, and is believed to foreshadow a general order affecting the entire Pennsylvania system.

Hundreds of local railroad men will be forced to seek other employment because of the reduction, but there will be no reduction at this time of engineers, firemen, brakemen or conductors, dispatchers, gatemen, porters or ticket handlers.

Economy is given by officers of the railroad company for the reduction in working forces.

DEMOCRATS MEET IN COLUMBUS TO NAME CHAIRMAN

Women To Have Equal Representation At Conference.

GOVERNOR ARRIVES

"Entirely Satisfied" With Results Of Meeting
Declares Cox.

Columbus, O., July 19.—"Entirely satisfied" with the results of his conference at the White House with President Wilson, Governor James M. Cox, Democratic presidential nominee, arrived in Columbus early this morning, ready to take up with the Democratic national committee, which meets here tomorrow, the problems of the forthcoming campaign.

Committees from various parts of the country began to arrive early and continued pouring in during the day. Homer S. Cummings, of Connecticut, chairman of the committee, and Ed. H. Moore of Ohio, were expected to arrive about noon. Immediate interest centers in the naming of the new national chairman, who will have charge of the campaign.

The names most prominently mentioned for the chairmanship are those of Moore and Cummings. It is generally conceded that Moore can have the place if he cares for it, but those in closest touch with the Ohio committee man who was one of the most active of the Cox leaders on the floor of the San Francisco convention, say he is not seeking the honor.

FIRST MEETING

Though the Democratic national committee met for a few minutes following the San Francisco convention, this is the first actual business meeting of the committee under the new rules which provide for equal representation for women on the body, and for the first time in the history of the party, women will have an equal voice in the selection of a national chairman. This means that the committee will number 106 instead of 53 as heretofore and in some quarters today fear was expressed that on account of its mere bulk, action might be slowed down to some extent.

Following the selection of a chairman the committee will proceed to the perfection of the details of the campaign, such as the appointment of assistant chairmen, to act as lieutenants in various sections of the country; the determination of the number and location of various headquarters and the working out of a system of tactics calculated to sweep the Cox-Roosevelt ticket to victory in the November elections.

HEAD OF ROYAL IRISH CONSTABULARY SHOT BY ASSASSINS

Slain By Armed Men In Club; Companion Is Injured.

Belfast, July 19.—Commissioner Smyth of the Royal Irish Constabulary was shot dead in the county club at Cork by 14 armed men, who forced their way past the door men. Smyth was found by the intruders sitting with friends, one of them District Inspector Craig. Several of the men fired pointblank at Commissioner Smyth, who rose, but fell dead while endeavoring to reach the door. Mr. Craig was wounded during the fusillade. Mr. Smyth was the divisional commissioner for the Munster Royal Irish Constabulary. It is reported that some arrests have been made in connection with the shooting.

Smyth was a captain of the Fifteenth Sikhs during the world war and won the Victoria cross. He lost his left arm in the fighting and returned to England with the rank of colonel. He received his commission a few months ago.

Smyth's name figured prominently in the house of commons in connection with a speech he made to the police at Listowel, County Kerry, June 19, in which it was declared he ordered his men not to be afraid to shoot with effect.

MOORE REFUSES HONOR

Youngstown, O., July 19.—E. H. Moore, Cox manager at the Democratic national convention, stated today that he positively would not accept the Democratic national committee chairmanship.

HARDING FIRES BROADSIDE AT COX STAND ON LEAGUE OF NATIONS

REPUBLICAN PRESIDENTIAL NOMINEE ACCEPTS CHALLENGE; AWAITS REPLY

Marion, O., July 19.—With his speech of acceptance completed, Senator Warren G. Harding, Republican presidential nominee, today planned for a few days rest. While at breakfast this morning he ordered his chauffeur to get out his automobile. Unless important visitors arrive unexpectedly, no conferences being scheduled, the senator will take a ride. The senator has not heard at this early hour any outside comments on the effect of his most recent blast on the league of nations or his political move against his Democratic opponent, Governor Cox. His friends here are pleased with his latest attempt to "smoke out" the Democratic nominee on the result of the White House conference on Sunday morning. In issuing his list of queries as to Governor Cox's stand on specific commitments of the league covenant, the senator has accepted definitely the challenge of President Wilson and the Democratic convention to make the league the dominant issue in the coming campaign. He has stated that he welcomed such an issue. He is waiting for the governor's reply when another pronouncement may be expected from him.

Senator Harding said that the White House statement as to the agreements of the conference were not satisfactory to him. "I want something more specific," he said. "They do not answer my questions asked of Governor Cox. I want answers in detail."

RAIL STRIKE HINGES ON CHICAGO MEETING

Workers To Hear Wage Award Of U. S. Labor Board
Tuesday; Future Action Rests On Acceptance
Or Rejection Of Proposal.

Chicago, July 19.—More than 500 representatives of the sixteen big railroad brotherhoods met in Chicago today as the grand council of the rail unions to prepare for the receiving of the wage award which the United States railroad labor board will announce at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Session by section the award will be considered and voted upon by the grand council, and on the outcome will rest the acceptance of the award on behalf of the two million railroad workers of the country or the authorization by the brotherhood heads of a national strike.

Reports that details of the award were known by the brotherhood chiefs and that the latter were dissatisfied with them were in wide circulation as the grand council opened its meeting. The attitude of a number of the union leaders was expressed by M. Heberling, international president of the switchmen's union, who was expressed by M. Heberling, international president of the switchmen's union of North America, when he stated that the brotherhoods would not be compelled to accept the award if it was not voted upon as satisfactory following its receipt officially tomorrow.

WOMEN INJURED IN FIGHTING NEAR CORK; BRITISH TAKE CHARGE

Night Of Terror In City
As Battle Continues
To Rage.

London, July 19.—One civilian was killed and 14 others, including seven women, were wounded in an outbreak of fighting at Cork, said a Central News dispatch from that city today.

A cordon of British troops was thrown around the city halting all traffic, the Exchange Telegraph correspondent at Cork reported.

"Cork spent a night of terror," said a dispatch to the Evening News. "The trouble began when news was received that John Bourke, an ex-soldier, had been bayoneted to death by a sentry after failing to heed the challenge. Ex-soldiers attacked one man from a South Staffordshire regiment who the Sinn Fein volunteers succeeded in rescuing. Later indiscriminate firing from the soldiers began."

"During the fighting lorries filled with military patrols and armored cars caused panic among the population, by racing through the streets with the soldiers firing in every direction," said another Central News dispatch.

WILL STAND TRIAL FOR WIFE'S MURDER; CLAIMS INNOCENCE

Undertaker's Assistant Is Charged With Poisoning Wife.

Manchester, Vt., July 19.—Byron Madison Pettibone, 32 year old undertaker's assistant, known as the "beau brummel" of Bennington, went on trial today in Bennington county superior court for the alleged murder by poison of his wife, Eva Bond Pettibone, 17 years his senior. Pettibone is charged with having slain his wife that he might be free to give his attentions to a younger woman, Miss Helen Guilford, a trained nurse of Sodom, N. Y., whom the Bennington police declare Pettibone courted while riding with her on a horse.

Pettibone, it is charged by the state administered poison to his wife in a dose of salts shortly before she went to bed.

REFERS TO MEETING

Article 10, And Armenian
Mandate Get Airing
In Bill.

Marion, O., July 19.—A cabled statement from Colonel E. M. House, at London, one of the American peace commissioners, that a preliminary peace treaty could have been made before Christmas, 1918, brought this comment today from Senator Harding, the Republican presidential nominee:

"We are beginning to understand the mistakenly plighted relationship of the United States to Europe just in time to proceed to a referendum intelligently. The one representative of this country, other than the president, who best knew the whole situation at Paris, was Colonel House. He tells us now, in a cabled statement from London, that the suggestion of a preliminary peace treaty was made very soon after the armistice and that such a treaty could have been made before Christmas of 1918.

"All along this has been the Republican conception of what ought to have been done, but this is the first official knowledge that Europe wished such a procedure and was deterred by us in expediting peace. The authentic revelation is peculiarly interesting at the moment when it is announced that the continuation of the foreign policy which has so grievously disappointed both Europe and America."

Colonel House's statement to which Senator Harding referred was contained in a special cable from London, July 12, to a Philadelphia newspaper.

Marion, O., July 19.—Warren G. Harding, Republican candidate for president, in a broadside of interrogatories challenges his Democratic opponent, Governor Cox, to say categorically where he stands on article 10, the Armenian mandate and the other problems wrapped up in American participation in the league of nations. The white house conference between Governor Cox and President Wilson, said Senator Harding, could not be fully explained by a statement of a "complete accord." He declared the American people not only would ask whether the Democratic nominee had put Mr. Wilson in charge of the campaign and shouldered completely the administration's program of foreign commitments, but would demand to be informed also just what those commitments are.

"It is earnestly to be hoped," continued the Republican nominee, "that Governor Cox will frankly and promptly answer these questions, because the Republican party wants the country to know it rejects all of these ill-considered commitments and pledges its administration against them."

Harding's Queries.

The feeling among those close to the candidate was that the president was forcing the league issue into the forefront of the campaign and that the Republicans should be perfectly willing to accept the consequences. They declared that if the desire of Governor Cox coincided with that of Mr. Wilson, Senator Harding's stand would draw the fight into the open.

Senator Harding, in his statement, asks, among other things: "Has Governor Cox pledged himself to ratification of the treaty and league without essential modifications? Has article 10 been accepted? It has been repeatedly declared that article 10 is the 'heart of the treaty' and that to cut it out would 'break the heart of the world.' Is the Democratic ticket still for article 10?

"Has Governor Cox undertaken, in case he is elected, to renew demand that this country take a mandate over Armenia? Has he undertaken to maintain the administration policy in the Adriatic, where we have well-nigh forfeited the friendship of the great Italian people, brought Italy to the verge of revolution and almost wrecked the establishment of the peace? Has he pledged himself to insist that Thrace shall be joined to Bulgaria, instead of to Greece, regardless of the wishes of the Thracians, the Greeks and our allies?" "Broadly" has the nominee taken over the various and unknown commitments of the present administration's foreign policy in order to establish harmony between the president and himself?"

BEAUTY CHATS

There is a great art in knowing how and when to relax. I think that all great people possess this wonderful ability and that it is one of the reasons some of them accomplish all they do.

Some of us, however, do not possess the art of being able to relax and have to go on vacations to learn how. The unfortunate part is that it frequently takes all the vacation time just to find out how to get all the tautness out of our muscles and the kinks out of our minds. Then we have to return to our work only a little rested by the change.

That is why I sometimes feel that I do not talk enough about this question of relaxation. For no woman can keep her youth if she does not get sufficient rest—and to relax is to rest completely. As I said before, it is an art—but it is one that even the most neurotic woman can learn. I think a great deal of it is mental; therefore I always advise the woman of nervous temperament to keep some book of light fiction or collection of amusing stories by her bed, so that she can force her mind to relax when she cannot sleep.

If you cannot compel yourself mentally, you can frequently accomplish this physically—by taking a very warm bath, soaking yourself in the tub for 10 or 15 minutes, then rolling up in a loose robe, and lying flat on your back with your eyes closed. The warmth of the water will automatically relax the muscles when all the efforts of the mind will not produce that desired effect. If you will train yourself to relax in odd moments, you will find you have much more energy while you are working, and that you will accomplish more with less effort.

Worried—You are treating your hair very badly and will lose it if you are not careful. You should use oil on the scalp to get rid of the dandruff. Tar soap is all right, but you do not want to dry your hair—in its present state of health—by putting lemon in the rinse water. You should not use the sort of curlers that you do and you should not use lotions to make the hair brilliant.

MACHINE CRUSHED BENEATH TREE AFTER OCCUPANTS LEAVE

A big poplar tree, blown down by the storm, crushed the automobile of Dr. T. W. Trehanne of Zimmerman a few minutes after a party who had accompanied the physician to the home of John Davis near Trebeins Sunday afternoon had left the car.

The party consisting of Dr. Trehanne's two sons, his daughter, and Miss June Thompson of Alpha, were waiting in the machine in front of the house while the doctor made a call in the Davis' home. When the storm became severe the young people were invited into the house. They left the car, and had barely entered the dwelling when the machine was crushed beneath the heavy tree.

and health departments here have joined in a drive against commercialized vice. Instructions have been issued to officers to clean out the var-has been adopted by the municipal court of turning offenders over to the grand jury for indictment in the crimi-

them. The power of quantifying venereal cases will be more stringently enforced by the health depart-

BRYSON CALLED TO COLUMBUS TO ATTEND FARMERS CONFERENCE

Representative W B Bryson, of Greene Co., was one of seven leading farmers, most of them members of the legislature, who were called to Columbus Thursday by Republican state chairman, George H. Clark, for conference on the political situation as it affects the farming community.

Other men in the party were: Senator Frank Parrett, from Washington C. H.; Representative Harry Silver of Preble County; Representative H. E. Trumbull of Morrow county; Representative McFarland of Morrow county; Speaker of the House Conover, of Hamilton county; and John Beggs, well known institute worker. Methods to be used in presenting the party's interests to the farmer were discussed.

Mr. Bryson said that one item of interest brought out at the meeting is the fact that there are between 300,000 and 400,000 farmers in Ohio, representing a larger number of people than any other business interest in the state.

TO ATTEND SCHOOL FOR SALESMEN

Robert Adair, who has this territory for the Deem & Wing Paper Company of Cincinnati, will leave Tuesday for Cumberland Mills, Maine where he will be in attendance at the week's salesmen camp and school conducted by the S. D. Warren Paper Company.

Mr. Adair will take his vacation at the same time spending the second week at New York City.

CAMPAIGN AGAINST VIOLATIONS OF AUTO LAW TO BE WAGED

The police speed and traffic department will conduct a vigorous campaign against the open cut-out and the non observance of proper lights at night.

Many machines, especially trucks, while observing enough of the speed laws, flagrantly violate the cut out law and travel through the city with the muffler open. Such drivers pay no more heed of motorists than anything else. Offenders will be fined when caught.

The fact that the law requires three lights on a machine will also be impressed upon auto drivers. There must be two headlights and one light in the rear, according to police who will hale offenders into police court.

RECIPES FOR A DAY.

Corned Beef Hash—Mince fine leftover corned beef and measure about one and one-half cups. Place in a saucepan and add one cup of finely chopped onions, two cups of diced potatoes, two pimentoes, chopped fine, one-half cup of finely chopped parsley, two and one-half cups cold water.

Cook slowly until the water is absorbed. This usually takes about fifty minutes. When ready to serve place one-half cup of shortening in a saucepan and when hot add the hash. Cook slowly until it forms a nice brown crust. Make into an omelet shape and then turn on a hot platter. Garnish with pieces of fried tomato and finely chopped parsley.

Filled Noodles (potatoes not needed with this dish)—For a small family make a noodle dough of two eggs; beat eggs, then add enough flour to make a stiff dough (not too stiff); add a pinch of salt, roll out thin in two sheets, then cut each sheet in squares about two inches square. Then put in the following filling:

One pound chopped beef, salt and pepper to taste, one egg, one onion cut fine, parsley if liked, and a half cup bread crumbs. Put spoonful of this in each of the noodle squares, lap over sides and press down on each edge. Cook one-half hour in boiling salt water, skim out and serve with melted butter and browned bread crumbs. Serve with any salad as a side dish.

Potato Dish—When potatoes are scarce and high-priced try this: Having boiled potatoes left to fry but not enough to go around, put potatoes in frying pan with lard or butter substitute. Heat thoroughly, then add bread dipped in milk (or water) broken in pieces. Beat up an egg, add about one-half cup of milk, beat thoroughly (milk may be used from dipping bread); add to potatoes, stir quickly and serve at once.

THE SEASON'S DESSERT.

then add three large eggs (well beaten), one teaspoon soda dissolved in a little water, one teaspoon vanilla. Beat these together and pour into the dry mixture. It not wet enough add a little milk.

Roll and bake. Nice to serve with ice cream or lemonade.

Strawberry Ice Cream—Stem and wash one quart nice ripe strawberries. Mash to a pulp and add about two cups of granulated sugar. Let this stand for a few hours to dissolve the sugar, then add one-half pint of cream and one pint of milk and freeze.

This will make about a half gallon of cream.

White Cookies—One cup white sugar, one cup brown sugar, five cups flour, one cup shortening, one teaspoon baking powder, salt and nutmeg.

Mix all together like pie crust.

SAYS AUTO STRUCK WAGON ON SUNDAY

George Rose, complained to the Police Sunday that the spring wagon in which he was riding with a companion on South Detroit street had been struck by an automobile asserting that both men were knocked out of the wagon and that shaft of the vehicle was broken. The driver of the machine did not stop but Ross secured the license number which he turned over to the police. An investigation showed the number was taken out by Artie L. Craig of Spring Valley.

FORMER SOLDIER IS KILLED

"JUST A GIRL"

BY JANE PHELPS

MARY'S PROMOTION

Chapter 66

I was beginning to be uncomfortable whenever Mr. Watkins, the manager of the restaurant, was near me. He had asked me to go to the theater once or twice, and for a motor car ride. I had gone once to the theater, but refused to accept his invitation to ride unless Mary went also. Mr. Watkins had been very kind, very polite to me, yet I had an uneasy feeling that if he had a chance he would make love to me.

He favored me now, and made things as easy for me as possible. While I appreciated this I also felt that if he talked of love to me I would have to give up my position, so I avoided him whenever it was possible. He was a quick-moving business-like sort of a man without much education, but with a good deal of executive ability.

Mary finally noticed his attempts to favor me and chaffed me unmercifully.

"He's falling in love with you, sure as preachin!" she declared. "Now don't say 'nonsense' as you did about Moore. Remember I guessed right about him."

"I hope you are wrong, Mary. I would be very unhappy if you were right. It would mean I would have to leave."

The day after this conversation I thanked Mr. Watkins for something he did for me.

"I always try to help the girls all I can," he replied. Then lowering his voice, "But there ain't many like you here."

I felt horribly embarrassed. It may have been that my thoughts showed in my face, for he asked:

"What are you thinking about?"

"Oh, nothing!" I returned, but I felt uncomfortable, almost like crying.

"May I take you out some night soon, Miss Stewart? To dinner—or the theater? I have something to say to you."

"But Mr. Watkins, I never go out evenings—never unless Mary goes too," I exclaimed.

"Never mind Mary. Make up your mind when you will go out with me and let me know."

Mary had stood near enough to hear most of the conversation and to guess the rest. So I was not surprised when she said:

"Didn't I tell you he had a crush on you? He ain't a bad sort either, Zena. You might look further and do worse; tho of course he ain't your kind, really."

"I don't want to look anywhere."

"I have something to tell you, Zena," Mary said after a moment. "I have been goin' to tell you for most a week but it seemed kind of wrong some way that it should come to me, instead of you."

"What is it Mary?" I had noticed she had been unusually quiet, but had been so taken up with my own thoughts I had paid little attention, and had said nothing to her.

Mr. Watkins has made me head waitress, Miss Black is goin to leave is getting married so he gave me her job."

"I am so glad, Mary!" I was, altho a bit surprised too. "You will make a good boss. I never could do it in the world."

"Then you don't think —"

"That I should have been made head? Indeed not! I would have a very poor opinion of Mr. Watkins' judgment had he asked me."

After Mary went to her room, my thoughts reverted to Mr. Watkins. I liked him, he had been very kind to me, but rather than marry a man I didn't love, I would have died of starvation—I would have slept home less in the streets. Yet an appalling sense of loneliness swept over me. If only some one who loved and cared for me, were near me.

I sat by my window until late. Thoughts of Kenneth Lawrence finally came. Always at such times, he was near me, in my mind. Some way I knew I was destined always to think of him. I whispered his name and flushed hotly in the dark as I heard it.

The next day was dull and rainy. I wondered as I entered restaurant if life were worth the struggle? All the morning the feeling of depression remained. In the afternoon it deepened. Mary was to remain and receive some bit of instruction from the outgoing head and I started home alone. But soon I heard a hurried step behind me. Mr. Watkins was coming from his exertion, insisted upon walking with me.

Before I reached home that night I had refused to marry the manager of the restaurant and had also given up my job.

SAVES OWN LIFE

Bellefontaine—His presence of mind, probably saved George F. Baker from death when he fell in his barn. Falling head downward toward the floor, he grabbed a rope by means of which he regained an erect position. In his fall, his left leg was broken and left foot crushed.

GETS RE-APPOINTMENT

Columbus, July —Governor Cox reappointed John L. Miller as superintendent of the state department of public works for another year. Miller has occupied this position during the past seven years. He said that there will be no changes among the officers in his department.

GREAT NEGRO EXODUS SEEN IN GEORGIA CENSUS

Albany, Ga., July 19.—The seriousness of the negro migration from South Georgia is beginning to be visualized here as the returns from the 1920 census are published. Figures on Quitman and Clay counties show the former has lost more than 25 per cent of its population in ten years and the latter 15 per cent.

The New Flexible Plan of Operating Building & Loan Associations

Has proven immensely popular with both depositors and borrowers. The following clause is a part of our mortgage bonds. "It is agreed and understood that at any semi-annual settlement period, The Board of Directors of The Columbian Building and Loan Company may fix such a legal rate of interest on this bond as conditions and the current rate of interest may justify."

Unquestionably, a rate of seven per cent. is now justifiable on mortgage loans. That is now our rate. This enables us to pay

6% on Deposits

Our new flexible plan has many advantages over the "old plan" of operating Building and Loan associations.

1—Its Simplicity.

Simply by a resolution of our Board of Directors, the rate on both deposits and loans can be adjusted as financial conditions and the current rate of interest may justify.

2—Its Fairness to Both Parties.

Money is a commodity and, like all other commodities, is subject to the law of supply and demand. Under our flexible plan the depositor receives and the borrower pays just what the money is worth.

3—Its Flexibility.

Under the old plan of operating building and loan associations, depositors received five per cent on their deposits and their money was loaned out on long-time loans at six per cent. For years we have realized the impropriety of tying up our depositors' money in long-time loans at six per cent because the institution that operates on this plan cannot afford to pay more than five per cent on deposits even though money is actually worth a much higher rate. Due to our flexible plan, we never find ourselves in this embarrassing position. We can always pay to our depositors what their money is worth.

4—Its Absolute Safety.

There is always a margin of one per cent between the loaning rate and the rate paid on deposits; almost thirty years experience has demonstrated the fact that this is sufficient to meet all legitimate expenses, and to place a very substantial sum each year in our reserve fund.

If this plan appeals to you, if it seems reasonable and just to all parties concerned, bring us your money.

We will lend it to assist in the building of a modest home, and you will have the satisfaction of knowing that you have assisted in the solution of the deplorable housing problem of our city.

PARTY OF SEVEN NARROWLY ESCAPE DEATH AT CROSSING

A man, woman and five children, escaped injury when the automobile in which they were riding was struck by the west bound passenger train on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad at the Little street crossing at 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

The party was a family from Frankfort. They left before their name was learned. Owing to the condition of Dayton avenue, which is being prepared for paving, the party detoured through Little street. The driver said that he did not notice the approach of the train until it was close to the crossing, when he heard the whistle. He made an effort to cross the track and the train, which was traveling slowly struck the rear of the machine and caused it to upset at the side of the track. The woman received a bruised arm, but the others were unhurt. The body of the machine was slightly damaged but the wind shield even was unbroken. After the car had been set on its wheels the party continued on its journey.

At her death or should she remarry the will provides that the property be equally divided between the two children. The physician directs that the education of his daughter Dorothy be completed. The will was executed June 19, a short time before the physician's death and was witnessed by Pres. ident W. R. McChesney of Cedarville college. Mrs. Oglesbee was named executor without bond. Dr. L. C. Walkey, J. E. Turnbull and W. L. Clemens were appointed appraisers.

METEORS SCORE WIN BY NARROW MARGIN

By the narrow margin of one point, the Xenia Meteors defeated the Xenia Speedwells at the Cincinnati avenue lot Sunday afternoon, the score being 10-9. It was the second time this season that the Meteors have defeated the colored lads. Although they out hit the Meteors, touching up the offerings of Wakely for 11 safe blows, the Speedwells contributed errors in the field that cost them the game. While Dicky and Hill were setting back the Meteor batsman with seven hits, their support was boosting the sphere about the pasture with reckless consistency, the results being disastrous.

Although the scoring was very heavy the game was interesting as it was tied at numerous stages of the pastime and was anybody's contest up to the final stanza when Frank Leahy's three base clout paved the way to the win for the locals. The lineup; Meteors—E. Leahy ss, F. Leahy 3b, Stevens cf, Dennis c, Holland lf, Blair Henderson 1b, Rachford Skelly rf, Neville 2b, Brownley Wakely p. Speedwells—L. Ward lf, Johnson 3b, Ewing 2b, Dicky p-ss, Vaughn 1b, Bird rf, N. Ewing c, Estridge cf, Hill p-ss. Umpire—McFadden. The score:
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 R H E

An old colored man was burning dead grass when a "wise guy" stopped and said: "You're foolish to do that, Uncle Eb; it will make the meadow as black as you are." "Don't worry 'bout dat, sah," responded Uncle Eb. "Dat grass will grow out an' be as green as you is."

CHURCH WOMEN GIVE RECEPTION

Opening their homes on West Second street Friday afternoon, Mrs. Ben Beldon and Mrs. R. R. Grieve received one hundred women to greet and say goodbye to Miss Martha Anderson who is soon to go to Greenville, Tenn., where she will become instructor in music in a mission school.

The guests were nearly all members of the congregation of the Second United Presbyterian church, where Miss Anderson is director of the choir, and a favorite young church worker.

Mrs. Beldon received the callers in her downstairs apartments and they were invited in groups to Mrs. Grieve's apartment on the second floor, where they were served.

Quantities of garden flowers added to the attractiveness of both apartments. Sweet peas, nasturtium, and the beautiful "hills of snow" were placed in lovely arrangement.

With Mrs. Beldon and Mrs. Grieve there were greeting the guests and extending hospitality, the other hostesses, Mrs. C. W. Tindall, Mrs. T. C. Wolford, Mrs. Jennie Stewart, Miss Maud Stewart and Mrs. Fannie Moore.

Mrs. Jeannette Anderson and Miss Mary Anderson, mother and sister of the honor guests, were also assisting about the rooms, and Mr. Chas. P. Proudfoot and Mrs. Elbert Babb helped in the hospitalities.

Victrola music entertained the guests before they were taken up stairs where Mrs. Grieve assisted by a bevy of girls, members of the choir of the Second church, served punch and cakes.

Late in the afternoon, Dr. G. J. Carson, Dr. J. H. Webster and Dr. C. P. Proudfoot called to join in the felicitations being extended to Miss Anderson, Miss Anderson expects to leave for Tennessee the middle of August.

FAMILY REUNION HELD ON SATURDAY

Edgewood Farm, the beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph O. Spahr, of the Stone Road, was the scene of a happy family gathering, on Saturday evening, at which Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Spahr, of South Detroit street and members of their family were guests.

A rather remarkable and unusual thing was in the fact that all of the ten children of Mr. and Mrs. Spahr with their entire families were present, thirty-five in all.

A beautiful supper was served at long tables on the lawn. Over fifty were present, including besides members of the Spahr family a few near relatives.

These present from out of town were, Mrs. Ellen Wilkins, of Burlington, Kan., a sister of Mrs. Spahr; Mr. and Mrs. J. Lester Spahr, of Wilmington; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Spahr and children, Martha, Mildred, Albert and Helen, of Newark; Mr. and Mrs. F. Blaine Spahr of Clinton; Rev. and Mrs. Lester L. Mrs. Anderson is survived by her husband and two children, both of whom are married. The body was removed to her home by undertaker Allen McClain. Funeral services will take place at the Caesareek Baptist church Wednesday at 2 o'clock.

PHENOMINAL INCREASE IN NUMBER OWNING STOCK AND BONDS OF INDUSTRIAL CORPORATIONS.

Since Xenia is the home of a six million dollar Industrial Corporation, it may be interesting to note the great increase in the number of Americans who, of late, make a business of investing their spare money in the shares and bonds of industrial and railroad corporations. Claiming little personal knowledge of the subject, we borrow the views of one who has given much attention to the matter. But, mind you, you need to be sharp as a steel trap, before you part with your good dollars for stock of any kind, without inside knowledge of its ACTUAL WORTH, rather than on the catch trap promise of big dividends or annual interest it will pay you.

Have you ever stopped to think of the wonderful democratization of industrial ownership that has been quietly progressing in this country? Have you ever given a thought to the amazing increase in the number of stockholders in our railroad, our utility, our industrial, our mining and even our mercantile enterprises? Since each stockholder is part owner of his company, is it not natural that the number of persons who feel friendly, rather than antagonistic, to corporations should have multiplied? In the early days corporations had few friends. Now they have many stockholders.

In addition to holders of stocks and bonds in individual companies, it is now better realized that millions and millions of American families are affected by any crippling measures instituted against corporations whose securities have been widely distributed. The average enlightened American man or woman now understands that the money paid by him or her for insurance protection is largely invested in corporate securities; the savings bank depositor has now learned that his or her interest comes largely from the earnings of business corporations; many workers now know that the funds for maintaining hospitals and other charitable institutions come in no small part from the dividend and interest payments on securities bequeathed to those institutions; in fact the public at large now understands either clearly or vaguely that the wellbeing of the whole nation is dependent upon the wellbeing of business, and also that our great business organizations are not owned solely by a few Rockefellers, and Vanderbilts, and Morgans, but by the Smiths, and the Browns, and pretty much everybody else.

The Pennsylvania Railroad heads the list of railroads in point of number of stockholders. In 1900 fewer than 25,000 persons owned any Pennsylvania Railroad stock. In 1910 there were almost 66,000 stockholders. The Pennsy now has 125,072 stockholders. They hold an average of just under eighty shares, whereas four years ago there were only 89,821 shareholders and the average holding was over 111 shares. Of today's total no fewer than 60,016 are women. Before the war 15 per cent of Pennsylvania stock was held abroad, against only 1 3-4 per cent today. The Pennsylvania is the world premier railroad.

HENRY FORD HAS INVESTED IN A RAILROAD TO GET COAL AND IRON FOR HIS BUSINESS.

Henry Ford's purchase of the Detroit, Toledo and Ironton Railroad brings up a nice question. Under the law railroads must confine themselves to transportation. They are not permitted to own or operate industrial establishments. In former days some of them owned coal mines and other properties. Many abuses grew out of this ownership. Congress forced the railroads to dispose of their holdings.

If a railroad cannot own a coal mine or a manufacturing business, will the law permit a manufacturer to own and operate a railroad?

Mr. Ford bought this railroad to improve his position in regard to coal, iron and other supplies. He may intend to let other automobile manufacturers in his territory and all other manufacturers enjoy the same privileges he, as owner of the road, commands. His intentions, however, do not come into consideration under the law. The courts will deal only with the fact that ownership gives power to him which could be used to the injury of others. A railroad is a public service corporation. Discrimination in favor of one interest or another is not permitted. As owner of the railroad Mr. Ford would be in position to discriminate as his private interest or his prejudice dictated. That is not good for business or the general public.

As a railroad the Detroit, Toledo and Ironton is not much to brag about. It has been in deep water financially for a long time. It is made up of odds and ends of old lines once operated under the name of the Detroit Southern. There have been various reorganizations in the last six or eight years. Of main line there are 418 miles, and the company has trackage rights over thirty-one miles of the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern and Baltimore and Ohio. It has been operated at a deficit for years and it will take considerable money to put it in shape to earn its way. It has $12,489,000 of capital stock and $9,209,917 of funded debt.

Mr. Ford, as reported, paid $4,000,000 for a controlling interest. The road has a fair amount of physical equipment, with seventy locomotives, 3,609 freight cars and twenty-seven passenger cars. In addition to main line track the D. T. & I. has 178 miles of coal mine sidings.

Most of the freight carried is coal. The passenger revenue in 1918 was only $145,201, as compared with $3,070,617 from freight.

"SMILES"

"Robert," said the manager to the office boy, "how is it that you are always the last to arrive in the morning and the first to go away in the evening?"

"When I was coming home last night," said Miss Skerry, "I saw a man skulking along in the shadow. Oh, how I ran!"

"And couldn't you catch him?" inquired her little brother, innocently.

The late Marshall Field had a very small office boy who came to him one day with a request for an increase in wages.

"Huh!" said Mr. Field, looking at him as if through a magnifying glass. "What raise do you want? How much are you getting?"

"Four dollars a week!" exclaimed his employer. "Why, when I was your age I was getting only $2."

"Oh, well, that's different," piped the youngster. "I guess you weren't worth any more."—Ladies' Home Journal.

"If," said the teacher, "you rhyme the facts of history, it will help you remember them. For instance, 'In fourteen hundred and ninety-two Columbus sailed the ocean blue.' That will help you to remember the date of the discovery of America."

Next day the teacher said, "Johnny, when did Columbus discover America?"

"In fourteen hundred ninety-three Columbus sailed the dark blue sea."

LOCATE OWNER OF FORD LEFT IN STREET

BLESSINGS.

I have so many blessings I cannot count them all, and Fortune's soft caressings upon me daily fall; the sun is busy shining, all clouds have silver lining; yet I find time for whining and putting up a bawl. It takes a lot of hunting to find a good excuse for waving crepe hue bunting, and weeping like the deuce; but I am most persistent; though sorrow may be distant and almost non-existent, I'll rope it with a noose. I've all a guy could wish for, I've health and roubles, too; the fame I used to fish for now spreads to far Wahoo; done are the strife and straining, sweet boons are on me raining; and still I sit complaining, and raise a howdydo. My car is out of kilter, it seems to lack the power; the milkmar ought to filter his juice—it's turning sour; the man who sells me berries and pies and pink canaries—his system never varies, he stings me every hour. For these and other reasons I sob beside the sea, although, through out the seasons, the gods are good to me; their gifts they are bestowing their goodness ever growing; and still, my teardrops flowing, I moan "Oh, hully chee!"

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a senior next year and am sixteen years old. I want to work through vacation as I am not allowed to go with boys and I get tired staying home.

Will you suggest some kind of work which I could take up? My hair is short and isn't thick and doesn't seem to grow. Would you advise having it bobbed? I comb it in a pretty way and it always looks nice.

Do you think I am old enough to attend private dances? I have many chances to go. JENE.

I would advise you to rest this vacation. Work might be a "lark" for a few weeks, but in the hot summer months it would grow more tiresome than staying at home. Your summer can be full of interest if you try to make it so. There are many good books to read, gardens to be cultivated, housework to be done and dresses to be made.

You might get office work, but it would not pay much. Temporary jobs never amount to much. After you have graduated from high school you will have time enough to work.

If you need the money, that is a different matter, of course. Then every dollar counts and it would not be so foolish to content yourself with the small pay of a summer job.

You probably expect me to suggest a variety of things you might do. There is not a variety. You probably would not consider waiting on table at a summer resort, and I would not advise a girl of your age to do such a thing.

If you bobbed your hair, you could use hair tonic easily and by faithful massage could increase the growth. Since you comb your hair in a becoming manner, however, I would advise you to use hair tonic and to let your hair remain long. You are too young to attend dances unless they are school affairs.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I will be

LOCAL SOLDIER NINE TAKES EASY WIN FROM JAMESTOWN

Getting away to a six run lead in the opening stanza, the base ball team representing the local post of the American Legion won an 11 to 5 victory in a hard fought game on the O. S. & S. O. Home diamonds Saturday afternoon, from the Jamestown Post nine.

After the first 2 innings in which errors, walks, hit batsmen, and hits combined gave the locals seven runs the Jamestown aggregation settled down and the rest of the combat was fought on even terms. The locals scored three runs in the seventh on a triple, double, single and an error, which put the game on ice.

The Jamestown team showed plenty of pep and never gave up until the last man was out, but the lead secured by the locals in the early part of the game could not be overcome. In the fourth inning they managed to push the runs across the pan and added three more in the sixth.

The local outfit made a fine showing in the field playing fast, clean ball and they greatly outclassed their opponents in this respect. Several apparent hits were turned into outs by clever fielding. Milburn at the "hot corner" with seven accepted chances, two of them difficult catches of fouls, Tucker at short, and Whittington at second, all played brilliantly.

Milburn secured three hits out of five trips to the rubber, while Fries and Denner with two and one respectively, had perfect averages.

Fries who hurled the first four frames, set his opponents back with three hits and two runs. Moore granted four hits and three runs in the four innings he hurled, while Bennington set the opposition back without hit or run in the ninth frame.

The lineup: Xenia, Tucker ss, Whittington 2b, Guilday cf, Milburn 3b, Moore 1b p, Fiste lf, Bennington rf p. McClellan c, Fries p, Denner 1b, Blackburn lf, Jamestown, Clarke ss, Soddors lf, Leveck 3b, Bowers 2b, Perry 1b, Glass rf, Ferguson cf, Carter c, Walthall p, O'Connor lf.

Sandusky man suffered agonies from lumbago, backache, kidney trouble, and rheumatism.

Nothing helped him until he got Dreco, the great root and herb medicine.

"If some one had stuck a knife into my back it would not have hurt any more than my back and side did from lumbago and rheumatism," said Mr. John Rider, of Cottage A, Soldiers Home, Sandusky, O.

Only those who have this trouble realize my feelings, for you have to go through it to know what the suffering is like. I was in misery all the time and when I would lie down could hardly turn over and when I'd get in a chair I'd hate to get up on account of the pains. My sleep was badly broken and I was getting weak, my stomach was in a very weakened condition from the strong medicine I took for my rheumatism. I was taking two kinds of medicine for rheumatism when I read of Dreco and put both aside for this new medicine. Dreco proved in a few days that it was real medicine for I soon saw the effects, my pains got easy, my sleep became sound, the backache passed away and I could get up and down without pain. My stomach got better and my food agrees with me. I'm still taking Dreco for I want to give it a fair chance to get me absolutely right again and I feel it can do this."

All good druggists now sell Dreco and it is highly recommended in Xenia by Sobn's drug store.

Joyous, Happy Women—

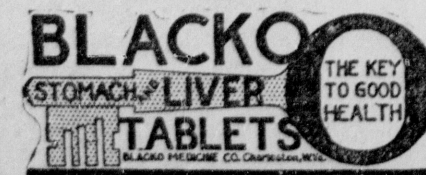

Seldom, if ever, does a joyous, happy woman suffer from a lapse of genuine good health and that is of course a fundamentally sound reason why they are joyous and happy.

Nothing can be more depressing than regular headaches which are usually made worse by a preventable constipated condition of both liver and bowels.

BLACKO Stomach and Liver Tablets give suffering women a real assistance to prevent serious discomfort and by their pleasing, sure effect, cleanse and invigorate.

BLACKO Tablets are made and sold for the good of the public health and are not habit forming. The more you take the less you need.

SNIPES, THAT'S ALL

Springfield, Ill., July 19.—A park policeman saw four young women and a young man "prowling" among some shrubbery in a local park. The quintet held a burlap sack. Suspicious, the policeman arrested all five. On convincing the Court that they were "shooting cigarette snipes" the five were released.

A LETTER FOR WOMEN

From a Woman Whose Serious Illness Was Overcome by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Garnett, Kas.—"I first took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for a complete nervous breakdown following the birth of my oldest child. I got up too soon which caused serious female trouble. I was so weak that I was not able to be on my feet but very little and could not do my housework at all. I had a bad pain in my left side and it would pain terribly if I stepped off a curb-stone. One day one of your booklets was thrown in the yard and I read every word in it. There were so many who had been helped by your medicine that I wanted to try it and my husband went to town and got me a bottle. It seemed as though I felt relief after the second dose, so I kept on until I had taken five bottles and by that time I was as well as I could wish. About a year later I gave birth to a ten pound boy, and have had two more children since and my health has been fine. If I ever have trouble of any kind I am going to take your medicine for I give it all the praise for my good health. I always recommend your medicine whenever I can."—Mrs. EYA E. SHAY, Garnett, Kansas.

Don't burn good fuel in a poor stove

Its a useless waste of good fuel and a needless extravagance to try to burn it in a poor stove. It is absolutely wrong to expect good food to supply energy, vitality, health and happiness if your stomach won't absorb and assimilate it. If you cannot eat with enjoyment, if your food does you no good, if food distresses rather than benefits, then you have indigestion or dyspepsia. The best remedy to use is PEPsinco.

Ask your druggist—he sells and recommends Pepsinco.
